DAILY ORDER

The Chief Engineer, Commercial of TANGEDCO appeared and filed the status report. Thiru Parthasarathy, Advocate represented for the Tamil Nadu Spinning Mills Association and filed the counter. Arguments heard. It was argued that the petitioner is charging rent from consumers who have deposited the cost of meters as ordered by the Commission, that the charges collected by the petitioner against cost of meter is arbitrary and that they are asked to conduct testing of the meter from one particular testing agency. The Commission directed that TANGEDCO shall not collect meter rent from the consumers who are willing to pay or paid the cost of the meter. The details of cost of meter are to be intimated to the consumer and the consumer shall be permitted to choose the testing agency from among the list of NABL accredited ones. The petitioner was directed to finish the task by the end of November 2015 and file the report.
