DAILY ORDER

Order pronounced.

In fine, this Commission doth order as follows:-

- a) The petitioner is entitled to 75% of the tariff fixed by the Commission or in cases where no tariff fixed, 75% of the tariff discovered in the competitive bidding shall be adopted for payment for the energy supplied over and above the limit sanctioned.
- b) In case any injection has been made by the generator against the direction of SLDC or at any point of time such injection had imperilled the grid security, such cases shall be dealt with separately by the respondent for the purpose of denial of claim.
- c) Even in such cases, it is only after giving due notice and fair hearing, that payment can be denied.
- d) In all other cases, payment shall be made at 75% tariff fixed by the Commission.
- e) Parties shall bear their respective cost. Petition Ordered accordingly.

DAILY ORDER

Order pronounced.

“5.34. The Review Petitioner has failed miserably to bring his case within the periphery of Regulation 43 (1) of TNERC Conduct of Business Regulations, 2004 and as such the power of review conferred upon this Commission cannot be exercised in the instant case.

5.35. In the upshot of the above conclusion, this Commission decides that there is no merit in the instant Review Petition

In the result, this Review Petition is ordered to be dismissed. No order as to costs”.
