Thiru. N.L. Rajah, Advocate appeared for the petitioner. The counsel for the petitioner submitted that he is not a petitioner before the High Court in the pending WPs and that his petition may be admitted and he may be permitted to mention the matter before the Commission at the appropriate time. He also submitted that he is not pressing for relief in the Interim Application. After hearing the Commission passed the following order:-

“ The same subject matter is subjudice in the High Court of Madras; the High Court has granted stay of operation of the two orders of TANGEDCO impugned in the present M.P. Therefore, this matter may lie over till the disposal of these cases by the High Court.”
